

'The teachings of Jesus help society to live better.'

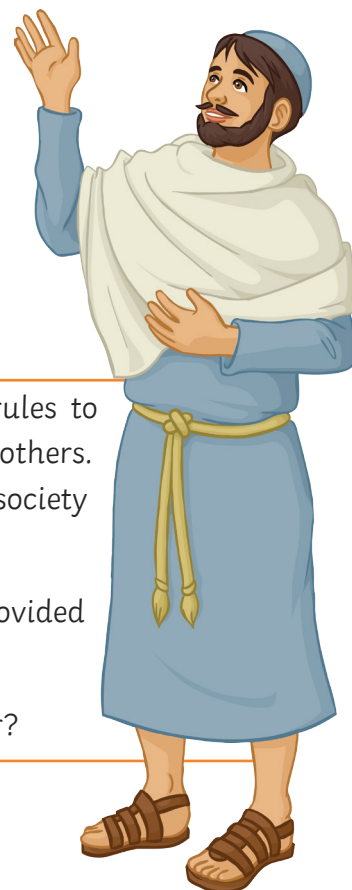

Do you agree? Give reasons for your answer.
Provide both points of view.

Read the answer below and consider how it could be improved.

The teachings of Jesus support society to live better because they provide rules to follow. The teachings of Jesus also provide specific ways to interact with others. Jesus provides many positive example of how to live your life. This helps society because ....

However, the teachings of Jesus may not be realistic. The teachings were provided thousands of years ago which may cause problems in following them today.

What additions, examples and reasons would you add to improve this answer?

Suggested
Improvements

